

327R All Blessings Are Scattered

1. All bles-sings are scat - tered like rains from high-est heav -
2. Sove-reign of right - eous - ness judg - eth all with-all jus -
3. From sea to sea shall be Love's true do - min - ion

- ens, like dews on the fields when the grass is new mown;
- tice, the moun-tains and hills by God's reign are se - cure;
spread, from the ends of the Earth to where riv - ers run;

peace is de - scend - ing, a-bun - dant, nev - er en - ding, peo-ples of all-na - tions through - out ge - ne - ra - tions
the isles of deep-o - ceans shall of - fer de - vo - tions, pri-soners and op - pressed are count - ed as God's own.

shall sing praise as long as the Sun shall en - dure.
Ru - lers shall bow down, and all lands pray as one.

Lyrics: Katharine Huntington Annin (1923), rev. REH (2006)
Music: DOWN AMPNEY (6.6.11.6.6.11.), Ralph Vaughn Williams (1906)

