

601R O Love, My Inmost Heart

$\text{♩} = 112$

1. O Love, my in - most heart and thought thy
2. Each spok - en word, each si - lent thought, thou,
3. If I the wings of morn - ing take to
4. From thee, O God, I can - not hide though
5. Search me, O Truth, and know my heart, try search - ing eye doth see; Wher - e'er I rest, wher - God, dost un - der - stand; Be - fore me and be - some re - mot - est land, still I shall be up - night - time cov - er me; The even - ing and the me, my thoughts to know; O lead me, if aim -

- e'er I go, my ways are known to thee.
- hind art thou, sus - tain - ing by thy hand.
- held by thee and guid - ed by thy hand.
light of day are both a - like to thee.
- less I stray, in paths of life to go.

Lyrics: The Psalter (1912), based on Psalm 139, rev. REH (2005)
Music: GUTERHIRT (C.M.), Michael Lonneke (2005) (released into public domain)

