

621R In Love I Put My Highest Trust

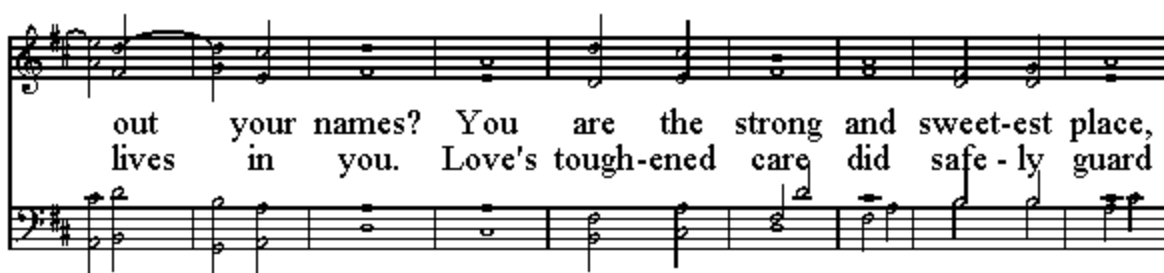

1=224

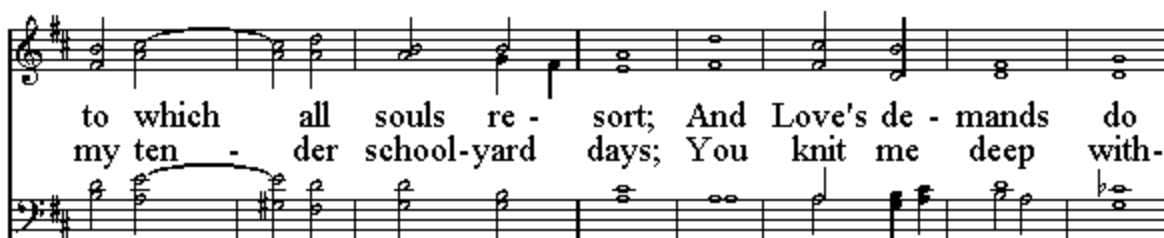

1. In Love I put my high-est trust, de-fend-ing hearts
2. From cru-el taunt and cru-el word, from ear-liest days from chains; And who but you can save my soul as I cry of youth, my heart you ev-er soothed, O God; My life still out your names? You are the strong and sweet-est place, lives in you. Love's tough-ened care did safe-ly guard to which all souls re-sort; And Love's de-mands do my ten-der school-yard days; You knit me deep with-

keep me safe; they are my rock and port.
- in your womb; Now life is con-stant praise!

Lyrics: Brady & Tate (1692), Psalm 71:1-6, adapted REH (2007)
Music: OLD 29TH (C.M.D.), Anglo-Genevan Psalter (1556), harm. Scottish Psalter (1635)
