

622R O Wisdom Reigns Supreme

1-113

1. O Wis - dom reigns su - preme, that all the world may wake, though
2. Our God does mer - cy love, and jus - tice does main - tain: In -
3. O Mos - es, Aar - on, priests, all who on true Love call, and
4. O God, our gra - cious God, who did a mes - sage send: Love dwel - ling with the wing - ed ones, the Earth's deep core may shake. Lies

- te - gri - ty and eth - ics too in Ja - cob did sus - tain. May Sa - muel trust - ing too in God, who then an - swered them all. Through grant - ed par - don for our deeds, as mer - cy did ex - tend. May in Je - ru - sa - lem, the Sove - reign's sa - cred throne, where all sing prais - es high, and Earth in prais - es laud: All pil - lar of Earth's clouds, the Ho - ly One did speak: who all sing prais - es high, and Earth in prais - es laud, and three creeds sing one ho - ly Name, that ev - er Life be known.

at the foot - stool wor - ship - ing, for ho - ly is our God.
did set forth a cov - e - nant, the Tor - ah, hence to keep.
cel - e - brate the moun - tain tops, for ho - ly is our God.

Words: United Presbyterian Psalter (1887), Psalm 99, adapted REH (2007)
Music: ST. MICHAEL (S.M.D.), Louis Bourgeois (1551), adapted William Crotch (1836)

