

623R All Who With Full Intent and Mind

1=112

1. All who with full in - tent and mind in Love's high peaks by
 2. O all shall cer - tain - ly be - hold what jus - tice have the
 3. So fierce - ly they shall you de - fend, that harm you shall be
 4. For so the Sove - reign One a - bove, bold - ly de - clares, "I 5. The years that shall be Time's de - sire, that we in grace full - faith do dwell: whose gra - cious pow - er all shall find the saf - est place to self - ish earned; but when true Love is your strong - hold, lo, hence to Life the sure of none, nor you so much as once of - fend, nor dash your foot a - know your name." I thus will lift my praise to Love, and foes con - found who

 - well may spend, our health and life and love en - tire, will serve all well and serve them well. Now say un - to our God will I, "O you in - deed are soul is turned. Then will no dan - gers vis - it you, nor will your tent or

 - gainst a stone. You shall a - mongst the li - ons tread, the dra - gon and the seek Love's shame. On me shall Life call when in need, and I will hear though have no end. All who with full in - tent and mind in Love's high peaks by hope most sure: For God is Love, thus will I cry my trust in you for - ground - cloth stir; for come the an - gels forth a - new, and to their strength all asp al - so; O you shall nev - er live in dread, as you a - mongst them still in doubt; in trou - bles I res - pond with speed, that God be glor - i - faith do dwell: whose gra - cious pow - er all shall find the saf - est place to

- ev - er more!"
 do de - fer.
 safe - ly go.
 - fied through - out.
 serve them well.

Words: William Kethe (circa 1561), Psalm 91:1-2, 8-16, adapted REH (2007)
 Music: WER DA WONET (L.M.D.), Vehe's Gesangbüchlein (1537)

