

73R Shekinah In Her Holy Place

1. She - ki - nah* in her ho - ly place, in all things, 2. Our art may build its house of God, our feet on 3. The liste - ning soul makes Si - nai still wher - ev - er near and far; She - ki - nah of the snow - flake, too, finds Si - nai stand, but ho - li - est of ho - lies knows no we may be, and in the vow "Thy will be done," lies glo - ry in the star. She finds her - self with - in the tread, no touch of hand. She tents with - in the lone - ly all Geth - se - ma - ne. O eve - ry - where her ho - ly love of those whom we love best; the smiles and tones that heart and shep - herds eve - ry thought; We find her not by place, if love un - seals the eyes, and eve - ry - where the make our homes are shrines by her poss - essed. seek - ing long, we lose her not, un - sought. wait - ing face to wel - come and sur - prise!

* Shekinah, the visible glory of God; see, e.g., Exodus 40:35

Lyrics: William Channing Gannett (1873), rev. REH (2005)

Music: RESIGNATION (C.M.D.), Traditional American; Southern Harmony (1835)

