

206R O Love! O Light! Our Faith and Sight

$\text{♩} = 125$

1. O Love! O Life! Our faith and sight your pres - ence
2. So, to our mor - tal minds sub - dued, flesh - veiled, but
3. We faint - ly know, dim - ly per - ceive, in dif - fer - ing
4. To do your will is more than praise, as words are
5. Our friend, our kind - red, and our word, What may your
6. Your li - ta - nies, sweet of - fi - ces of love and now makes one, as through trans - fig - ured clouds of white not con - cealed, we know in you the par - ent - hood phrase we pray; In you, dim or clear, we own free less than deeds; and sim - ple trust can find your ways ser - vice be? Nor name, nor form, nor ri - tual heard, gra - ti - tude; your sa - cred, di - vine li - tur - gies,

we trace the noon - day sun.
and heart of God re - vealed.
the Light, the Truth, the Way!
we miss with chart of creeds.
but fol - low - ing free - ly.
the joy of do - ing good. A - men.

Words: John Greenleaf Whittier (1866), rev. REH (2005)
Music: ST. AGNES (C.M.), John Bacchus Dykes (1866)

