

212R Christ Calls 'Take Up the Cross'

1. Christ calls: 'Take up the cross, O
2. Come faint and far the voice, from
3. O hea - vy cross of faith, in
4. If not as once you came in
5. With - in our heart of hearts, in friends, then fol - low me,' the night is dim, the vales of Gal - i - lee; Vi - sion ere fades in what we can - not see, as once re - store the true hu - man - i - ty come yet with - in as near - est near - ness be: Set up a throne with - soles worn thin, yet we fol - low free - ly.

an - cient shades; how do we serve free - ly?
self of yore as we fol - low free - ly.
guest a - gain so we fol - low free - ly.
- in your own, Christ, we fol - low free - ly.

Words: Francis Turner Palgrave (1865), rev. REH (2005)
Music: OLD 134TH (S.M.), Genevan Psalter (1543), arr. William Crotch (1836)

