

36R O God Whose Smile Is In the Sky

1. O God, whose smile is in the sky, whose
2. Now all the myriad sounds of earth in
3. We come as those with toil far spent who
4. Su - stain - er, soothe all troubl - ed thought, dis -
5. Un - til, as shine up - on the sea the path is in the sea, once more from earth's tu - so - lemn still - ness die; while wind and wave u - crave your rest and peace, and from the care and

- pel all id - le fear; O purge each heart of si - lent stars a - bove, there shines up - on our

- mul - tuous strife to you we turn glad - ly.
- nite to chant their an - them to the sky.
fret of life would find in you re - lease.
se - cret sin, and ba - nish ev - ery care.
trust - ing souls the light of your own love.

Words: John Haynes Holmes (1907), alt. REH (2006)
Music: MARTYRDOM (C.M.), Hugh Wilson (1800) arr. Ralph E. Hudson (1885)

