

447R O God, Unseen

$\text{♩} = 140$

1. O God, un - seen but ev - er near, our bless - ed
2. All soiled with dust our pil - grim feet and wea - ry
3. O wel - come in the wil - der - ness the sha - dow
4. A - while be - side the fount we stay and eat this rest are thou; and we, in love that has no fear, with the way, we seek thy shel - ter from the heat of thy love; the stream that springs our thirst to bless, bread of thine, then go re - joic - ing on our way,

take re - fuge with thee now.
and burd - en of the day.
the man - na from a - bove
re - newed with strength di - vine.

Words: Edward Olser, Samuel Longfellow (1864), alt. REH (2006)
Music: GRÄFENBURG (C.M.), Johann Crüger (1647)

