

607R O Blessed Seekers

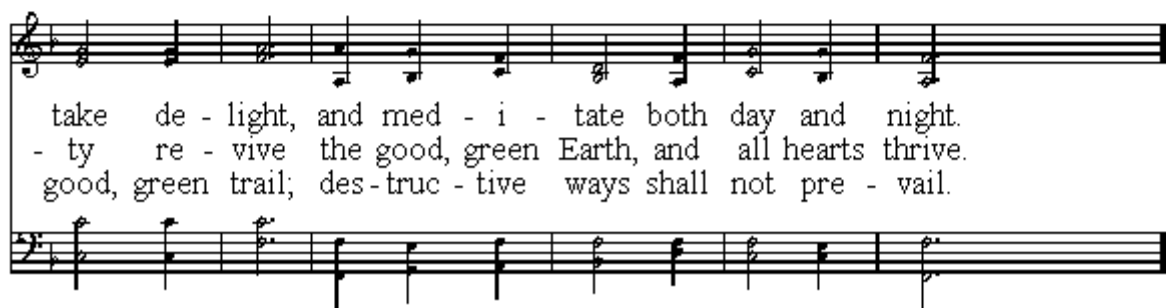

1. O bless-ed seek-ers do not stray on smooth stones laid to
2. They shall be like tall trees in spring where clear, clean wat-ers 3. Not so the self-ish lot, for they as dust, in heat and tempt our feet, nor fol-low down a thought-less way, gent-ly mist, which dark-blue ber-ries count-less bring, wind, are spent; they plun-der through each judg-ment day, nor sit up-on the cyn-ic's seat: But on the Tor-ah and ev-er green the leaves per-sist: Thus shall pros-per-iand do not dance through life con-tent: God's Earth sus-tains a
