

609R Your Burning Love

$\text{♩} = 115$

1. Your burn - ing love de - liv - ered; in sweet love songs I
 2. Love's ho - ly name re - mem - ber, all souls, give thanks and
 3. In gol - den days I boast - ed, "A moun - tain I re -
 4. Who'd pro - fit if we per - ished, if our lives were not
 5. Lo, heart - ache turns to dan - ces, to you great thanks all cried; my harsh - est cri - tics suf - fered in si - lence midst my praise! Life's sor - rows last a mo - ment, God's fa - vor lasts al -

 - main!" O God, with pleas - ing fa - vor, the high - land crests sus - spared? Would dust then sing out prais - es, how would Truth be de - raise, who took e - way this sad - ness, and lift - ed all in slide. O Hard - ened Truth, I sought you; your strength my heart did

 - ways; for sor - row, like a pil - grim, may come to stay the
 - tain. Then my life near - ly crumb - led, no more I heard you
 - clared? O God, send down com - pass - ion, and our de - si - res praise! So now, no lon - ger si - lent, with burn - ing love all save; O you did teach me wis - dom, whose path is long and brave.

 night, but joy the soul will glad - den when dawns the mor - ning light.
 speak, and cried a - loud, "O dear God," your mys - tery did I seek.
 hear, the heart needs you as lov - er: O Spir - it soon ap - pear!
 sing: "O Sweet - est God, for - ev - er," and thanks on high do bring!

Words: The Psalter (1912), Psalm 30, adapted by REH (2007)
 Music: MEIRIONYDD (7.6.7.6. D), William Freeman Lloyd (1840)