

79R Father and Friend, Thy Light, Thy Love

1. Fath - er and Friend, thy light, thy love, beam - ing through
2. Thy voice we hear, thy pre - sence feel, while thou, too
3. We know not in what hal - lowed part of the wide 4. Thy chil - dren shall not faint nor fear, sus - tained by all thy works we see; Thy glo - ry gilds the pure for mor - tal sight, reign - est in clouds, in - heavens thy throne may be, but this we know, that this ex - alt - ed thought; Since thou, their God, art heavens a - bove, and all the earth is full of thee.

- vi - sib - le, thou, La - dy of our life and light.
where thou art, strength, wis - dom, good - ness dwell with thee.
ev - ery - where, they can - not be where thou art not!
