

95R O God, the Watches of the Night

1. O God, the watch-es of the night are o'er; To light and 2. Fath-er, the watch-es of the day are here; More than from life the soul has risen <sup>once</sup> more; Praised be, So-those of night have we to fear; By rude cares

- phi - a, who through help - less hours, does keep in troub - led, by temp - ta - tions pressed, through the day deep-est peace her slum-bering powers.

watch-es, dear God, give us rest!

Words: from the Disciples' Hymn-Book (c. 1855), rev. REH (2005)
