

214R Rabbi and Worker of Years Past

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. Rab - bi and Work - er of years past, the one from Gal - i -
2. O Car - pen - ter of Na - za - reth, Bul - der of life di -
3. O one who does the vi - sion send and ere gives each a

- lee, who with the mind of ear - ly youth sub -
- vine, who shapes our lives to God's own law, your task, and with the task suf - fic - ient strength, show

- lime things did per - ceive, We give thanks for a own, the true de - sign, build us a tower of us your will, we ask; Give us a cons - cience child - hood faith that shone a whole life through; "Did Christ - like height, that we the land may view, and, bold and good, give us a pur - pose true, that you not know it is my work, and our God's work to do?"

lo, like you, our nob - lest work, the Sove - reign's work to do.
it may be our high - est joy our Sove - reign's work to do.

Lyrics: Jay Thomas Stocking (1912), alt. REH (2005)
Music: OLD 137th (C.M.D.), John Day's Psalter (1553)

